A NEWSLETTER OF PEOPLE AND EVENTS
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL

Greetings from the Chair

Spring 2019

Dr. Lisa Lindsay
Chair, Department of History

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Greetings from Hamilton Hall! As the academic year comes to a close, it is my pleasure to share with you the spring issue of our newsletter, the Department Historian. I hope you will take some time to read and learn about all the exciting things that are happening in the department.

This year has certainly been a busy one for our students and faculty. In addition to new initiatives in our educational programs, you'll read in this issue about innovative new undergraduate courses, accomplishments by two impressive PhD alumni, our newest program of graduate study, and some of the ways that history students are working for positive social change.

So much of what we do is made possible by the generous support of our friends and alumni. Last year, private support enabled us to:

- Recruit and retain outstanding professors in key areas of specialty;
- Fund groundbreaking research for undergraduates, graduate students, and faculty;
- Send students and faculty to present their research at national and international conferences; and
- Develop and sustain historical resources for the general public.

I hope you will consider making your gift today and help us continue the tradition of excellence that is History at UNC.

With gratitude,

Dr. Lisa Lindsay
Chair, Department of History

Gifts to the History Department

The History Department is a lively center for historical education and research. Although we are deeply committed to our mission as a public institution, our "margin of excellence" depends on generous private donations. At the present time, the department is particularly eager to improve the funding and fellowships for graduate students.

Your donations are used to send graduate students to professional conferences, support innovative student research, bring visiting speakers to campus, and expand other activities that enhance the department's intellectual community.

The Department also receives tax-deductible donations through the Arts and Sciences Foundation at UNC. Please note in the "memo" section of your check that your gift is intended for the History Department. Donations should be sent to the following address:
